INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, } Editors.
SEATON GALES. }

Monday Evening, Nov. 19, 1866.

THE DUTIES of the Associate Editor, as chief Clerk of the House of Commons, will necessarily suspend his Editoral connection with the Sentinel during the session of the Legislature.

The Legislature.

This body met to day at 12 o'clock, M. both Houses being nearly full. A few members were detained by various causes.

Both Houses proceeded at once to organize, which was effected in good time. The proceedings in another column, will give the reader the result. We are glad to learn that the best of feeling prevails. On to-morrow, the Governors message will be laid before the General Assembly and we expect to present it to our readers in to-morrow's issue.

Co-operation and Harmony.

There are imperious reasons why all the people of North Carolina and of the South, should have one mind and one will, in regard both to our national and domestic interests. Especially are the truly Conservative men of the South, regardless of old issues and old party names, bound by every consideration touching our national, State or individual imterests, to co-operate in all matters which tend to their promotion. Our personal and sectional feelings ought to be held in constant abeyance to the one great object of promoting the permanent peace of the nation, and the certain prosperity and interests of the State and of our own people. If there be those in the State who are radical in their proclivities and adverse to the sound constitutional policy of President Johnson, we should labor to win them over if possible, to correct and sober views, not by the compromise of our own principles, but by such a presentation of truth as will convince them of their error.—Many of these men have been misled, and it may be that a little effort may open their eyes.

National politics, with which we have so little to do, cannot demand much of our attention, yet Conservative men must not lose sight of the effect our action at home is to have abroad. Our Legislators cannot be too mindful of this, or too sagacious in making out such a course of action as will not necessarily produce irritation or militate against our interests at the North. Southern legislation or legislative movements, which bear at all upon questions of national interest, should be well considered and acted upon with frankness and prudence. In all these matters, we should stand shoulder to shoulder, nor allow any trivial matter at least, to prevent our presenting an unbroken front to our enemies.

The same course should be pursued in regard to State policy. We should look with intense concern upon the interests of every section and locality, and strive by wise and prudent legislature, to promote as far as possible, the well being of all sections and the interest of every citizen. Guided by these considerations, co-operation and harmony, will secure the greatest good to the greatest number.

The Situation.

What is the precise status of political affairs at Washington and at the North, can hardly be determined with any certainty. All shades of opinion have their advocates, and those who will direct public sentiment, observe at present a studied reticence, so far as they deem it necessary for the accomplishment of their object.—We have carefully given to our readers every indication which has been made, which unfolds future plans.

The impression seems to be gaining ground at the North, that the Howard amendment is a failure, and leading men who were its friends are casting about to find some other scheme which may be made successful. Moreover, every effort we judge, is employed to induce the President to modify or compromise his position, in order to secure harmony of action. It appears to be understood however, that while the President, will do or say nothing to irritate and keep up an angry contest with the Congress, he will nevertheless be firm in adhering to the great principles of the Constitution, which he has all along maintained.

Nothing however, can be fully determined until Congress assembles. The President's Message must first be made public, and the spirit in which it is received by Congress and the Northern press, will give some idea as to the future. In the meantime, while our people should strictly adhere to their purpose to give their attention fully to home affairs, we cannot be indifferent to the developments which are soon to be made in regard to our future national condition.

Death of Mr. Garner.

The last Weldon State comes to us drapped in mourning on account of the death of its editor, Thomas I. Garner, Esq. Mr. Garner was born in Northampton in 1829. In early life he was a farmer, but became connected with the press in 1858 and edited a paper in Murfreesboro', and afterwards in Elizabeth City, before the war. For some months he has edited the Weldon State. In all these positions, he sustained himself well. His last sickness was short, and he sleeps the sleep of death. Peace to his ashes.

ONE OF the methods resorted to by the Radicals of Joliet, Illinois, to show their delight at the result of the recent election in that State, was the burning of the Constitution of the United States, which was done in the open streets, amid the most vociferous cheering from the crowd of partizans assembled.

We love the Union, and we could desire no prouder epitaph than this:—"Here lies one who lived and died devotedly attached to the American Union."—Standard, Nov. 16, 1866.

As soon as Lincoln called for troops to make war on the South, we denounced him as a usurper, and turned our backs upon the old Union.—We did this, too, with the most entire consistency, for we have always held that the State had the right to secede for just cause.—Standard, Oct. 30 1861.

Manufactories in the South.

The great interest now felt in the South in the establishment of manufactories, renders every thing in connection with that subject, highly interesting. We are indebted to Wm. H. Willard, Esq., for the following highly important and interesting letter, addressed to him by one of the most practical and successful operators in the Southern States:

Machinery, the best kind and where obtained on the best terms, is a chief point of interest in this matter. This letter contains valuable information on that subject, from a source entirely reliable. Our cotemporaries cannot perhaps do a better service than to give this letter circulation. It was a private letter addressed to Mr. Willard, but his public spirit and the interest he takes in promoting this great interest in the South, induced him to hand it to us, to be used as we deemed best for the public good:

DEAR SIR:—I notice by the newspapers the great improvements going on in manufacturing in North Carolina.

Last Fall I went to Europe to get posted with regard to machinery of all kinds for the manufacture of cotton and wool, and to purchase woolen machinery for the mill I am now in. I returned in January to prepare my buildings, water-wheel and shafting for the machinery on its arrival. We have but a small mill yet—only two sets 48 inch cards, but with my European improvements we can do a great amount of work on them. Last week we carded 5,073 lbs. clean scoured wool—enough for six thousand yards heavy, all wool, goods. If I had supplied myself in this country I could not have done more than half that amount of work. We run our carding and spinning night and day. Our goods are all sold as fast as made—our agents in Baltimore wrote last week that every yard was sold.

I found the best cotton machinery in England and the best woolen machinery in France, Belgium and Prussia, except spinning, which these countries now get from England. I have machinery running from four different countries. I went in company with Mr. Johnston, of New York, was with him while there and came back with him. He purchased from one company eighty-six mules running from seven hundred to eight hundred spindles each. Garnn & Co., of which Mr. Johnston is manufacturing partner, run 4,200 looms on printing cloths. Mr. Johnston goes to England every year—he is there now. He is throwing out all his American machinery up to the spinning, and that he replaces with English as fast as it wears out. When I was last at his largest mill, he was throwing out six of Whiton's best lappers, almost new and as good as any he makes, and putting in English. I think Mr. Johnston the best cotton manufacturer in this country. Garnn & Co. were hard run, and their paper was as low as any in New York fifteen years ago, now they are rated at seventeen millions. They have been gradually changing their machinery for English since 1857. I state these facts to show you what the best cotton manufacturers are doing. It is important to the people of the South that their mills should have the best machinery and start right, instead of being behind Yankee mills. When Mr. Johnston returns I will give you a letter to him if you wish to see his machinery. The James River Manufacturing Co., of Richmond, have changed all their preparation up to the spinning. I ordered the machinery for them from some of my English friends. I have prices and specifications which I can give you it you wish to order. In England they use no top-flat cards,—nothing but the style of one I enclose,—one is equal to six old fashioned top flat cards. With the fly comb they now put on, you can run the doffer thirty in a minute, if you wish to, and the comb will clear it,—to spin 36, Mr. Johnston runs 22 inch doffers thirteen to fifteen. If you should wish any cotton or woolen machinery, or know of any person South who does, you may direct to me, here, and I will send you blank specifications with prices. Duty is 35.70 on machinery.

GOING FROM HOME.—Yesterday morning a garty of 250 emigrants from North Carolina passed through this city en route for Indiana, in which State they intend to settle. The throng was composed of men, women, and children, and their appearance indicated that they had endured great privations. Most of the men were clad in remnants of the Confederate uniform, while the females were but thinly and poorly clad. Among them was a number of negroes, going with those amongst whom they had always lived. Many of the emigrants were before the war in comfortable circumstances, but they lost all, and now seek a home among strangers. On reaching the Calvert station, the whole company was abundantly supplied with food, and the females received presents of clothing enough to make them comfortable. As they passed through the streets, many a hand found its way into the pocket of its possessor, and many a dollar was distributed to alleviate their distress. On that, as on occasions of necessity, the ladies of Baltimore were prompt to be foremost in the work of charity, and the destitute thereof expressed their appreciation in looks of thankfulness. It was a sorrowful procession, and calculated to give a proper idea of the desolation caused by the late war.—Baltimore Gazette.

[The Standard says that these men were driven from the State on account of their Union principles. The Standard also designates Baltimore as a hot bed of treason.]

Mississippi Never out of the Union--Decision of the Supreme Court.

NEW ORLEANS, November 15.—The Supreme Court of Mississippi has decided that the State has never lost its organization as a government by reasons of secession or war, but that it was in all respects not only a de facto but a de jure State, and that the functions of the government were rightly and constitutionally exercised by those who exercised the executive, legislative, and judicial functions during that time within the State. The opinion of the court was delivered by Judge Harris.

Judge J. Shallyerger, of Mississippi, has also decided that sales and executory contracts made before the surrender, and founded upon Confederate treasury notes as a consideration, were valid, and can be enforced now. Judge Clayton some time since decided confrary.

Five negroes have just been sentenced to the New Hampshire penitentiary, and two to the Massachusetts Legislature.—Prentice.

Some think that there is now no Congress known to the Constitution. Quite as many think that there is no Constitution known to Congress.—Prentice.

The New York Tribune says that the Conservatives never learn anything. But it may find that they can teach something.—Prentice.

The power of the country is in Radical hands. Possibly it may never be in better. It can never be in worse.—Prentice.

NORTH CAROLINA LEGISLATURE.

SENATE.

MONDAY MORNING, Nov. 19, 1866.

The Senate was called to order at 12 o'clock.

Maj. Englehard, Clerk of the last Senate, called the roll, and the following gentlemen answered to their names:

Messrs. Adams, Avery, Battle, Barnes, Berry, Brown, Bullock, Clark, Covington, Coward, Cowles, Cunningham, Edwards, Etheridge, Ferebee, Hall, Harris, of Franklin, Harris of Rutherford, Hill, Johnston, Jones, Kelly, Koonce, Leach, Lloyd, Love, Manly, Marshall, Mathews, McCorkle, McLean, Moore, Paschal, Perkins, Respass, Richardson, Robins, Snead, Speed, Spencer, Thompson, Thornton, Wiggins, Willey, Williams and Wilson.

The Clerk announced the election of Speaker in order.

Mr. Cunningham, of Person, nominated M. E. Manly, of Craven and Mr. Covington of Union nominated J. H. Wilson, of Mecklenburg.

Whereupon the Clerk appointed Messrs. Speed and Moore to superintend the election.

The following was the vote on the first ballot:

MANLY—Messrs. Battle, Barnes, Clark, Cunningham, Edwards, Etheridge, Ferebee, Hall, Harris, of Franklin, Kelly, Koonce, Lloyd, Moore, Speed, Spencer, Thompson, Thornton, Wiggins, Willey, Williams, Wilson.

WILSON.—Messrs. Adams, Avery, Berry, Brown, Covington, Johnston, Love, Manly, Marshall, McCorkle, McLean, Perkins, Respass.

LEACH.—Messrs. Bullock, Coward, Cowles, Hill, Jones, Paschall, Mathews, Snead, Richardson, Robins.

COWLES—Mr. Leach.

SNEAD.—Mr. Harris, of Rutherford.

There being no election, the Senate proceeded to ballot a second time with the following result:

MANLY.—Messrs. Battle, Barnes, Clark, Cunningham, Edwards, Etheridge, Ferebee, Hall, Harris, of Franklin, Kelly, Koonce, Lloyd, Moore, Paschal, Speed, Spencer, Thompson, Thornton, Wiggins, Willey, Williams and Wilson.

WILSON.—Messrs. Adams, Avery, Berry, Brown, Bullock, Covington, Johnston, Love, Manly, Marshall, McCorkle, McLean and Perkins.

LEACH.—Messrs. Bullock, Coward, Cowles, Hill, Jones, Mathews, Respass, Richardson, Robins and Snead.

COWLES.—Mr. Leach.

SNEAD.—Mr. Harris, of Rutherford.

There still being no choice, a third ballot was had, which resulted as follows:

MANLY.—Messrs. Adams, Avery, Battle, Barnes, Clark, Cunningham, Edwards, Etheridge, Ferebee, Hall, Harris, of Franklin, Kelly, Koonce, Lloyd, Love, McCorkle, Moore, Paschal, Speed, Spencer, Thompson, Thornton, Wiggins, Willey, Williams, Wilson.—26.

WILSON.—Messrs. Berry, Brown, Bullock, Covington, Cowles, Harris, of Rutherford, Hill, Johnston, Jones, Manly, Marshall, McLean, Perkins, Respass, Richardson, Robins, Snead.—16.

COWLES.—Messrs. Coward, Mathews —2.

Mr. Manly having received a majority of the votes cast, Messrs. Covington and Cunningham were appointed to conduct him to the Chair, whereupon, the Speaker addressed the body as follows:

I can truly say to my colleagues of the Senate, that this manifestation of their good will was unexpected by me. I can say also without affectation, that it embarrasses me, because I distrust my ability to fulfil the duties of the position acceptably.

My life has been spent until a late day in a different field of public service, and it is hard to lay aside old and long established habits of thought and action and assume new.

As, however, I know of no precedent for declining, I accept the position and pledge a sincere intention to discharge its duties with impartiality, with dilligenec and with such abilities as Providence has committed to me. For any failure to fulfil the just expectations of the Senate, in these respects, I invoke in advance the courtesy and kindness which has placed me here to excuse it, assuring Senators that it will be the result of a want of judgment and not of good will.

The legislative department of the state government enters upon its duties at this time amidst events of momentous, and as I think, of alarming import. The Nation is drifting into a state of sentiment, political and moral, that endangers the frame-work of government, as settled by our ancestors, and puts in jeopardy all popular liberty.

To this tendency of affairs, it is our duty to oppose such resistance as we can and to look to an overruling Providence, to reform the public heart, and to avert from our beloved State the portending evils. The duty of the day is solemn, and history will hold us responsible for the part we act. Let us, therefore, commit ourselves to the task before us in a spirit of carefulness, moderation, prudence, fortitude and unselfishness, adhering in all things to the great principles which our ancestors settled as the foundation of the people's rights.

Having a common interest in the welfare of our State and nation, I can perceive no reason for permanent disagreement or discord amongst ourselves. Although matters look unpropitious, the cause of popular liberty is not wholly lost, and there is no proper room for despair.

Let us then, Senators, work unitedly for the re-establishment of law and order upon these ancient foundations. I trust that a way through the dark may be shown us "which the vultures eye hath not seen."

In conclusion, I tender assurances that on the discharge of my duties, I shall endeavor not to fall short of reasonable requirements. I have no animosities to gratify, and ask your favor and indulgence.

On motion of Mr. Leach, the Senate proceeded to the election of Principal Clerk, whereupon Mr. Wilson nominated J. A. Englehard, of New Hanover. There being no opposition, Mr. Englehard was declared unanimously elected.

The Speaker announced the election of Assistant Clerk to be in order, and appointed Messrs. Hall and Avery to superintend the election.—Messrs. Q. Busbee and H. W. Husted, of Wake, and —— Colemas of Cabarrus, being put in nomination, Q. Busbee was elected upon the second ballot.

On motion of Mr. Leach, the Senate went into the election of Principal Doorkeeper, and nominated Jas. Page, of Randolph. There being no opposition, he was declared unanimously elected.

The Senate then proceeded to the election of Assistant Doorkeeper, whereupon Messrs. Talley and Ituth were put in nomination, and Mr. Talley was elected on the first ballot.

On motion of Mr. Cowles, a message was sent to the House informing them of the organization of the Senate.

On motion of Mr. Wiggins, the rules of order which governed the deliberations of the last Senate were adopted for the present.

On motion, the Senate adjourned till to-morrow at 11 o'clock A. M.

Mr. Cowan voted for Mr. Dargan. Mr. Logan voted for Mr. Ashworth and Mr. Scoggin for Mr. Blair.

Messrs. Murrill and Waugh conducted the Speaker elect to the chair, who addressed the House as follows:

Gentlemen of the House of Commons: You have called me to a position of honor, for which mark of your esteem and confidence you will please accept my sincere thanks. I am aware that the position is not one of honor alone, but one of great labor and responsibility. Yet the good order always preserved by the Legislature of North Carolina leads me to believe that my labors will be pleasant.

You have met in times of great political trouble and it is confidently expected that your deliberations will be marked by neither haste, passion nor fear, but by that calmness and firmness which has always characterized the deliberative bodies of your State.

I trust that the effect of the deliberations of your session, will be to preserve the credit of your State, to develop her resources and to bring prosperity to her people.

On motion of Mr. Holderby, Seaton Gales, Esq., was elected Principal Clerk by acclamation.

On motion of Mr. Dargan, W. M. Hardy, Esq., of Buncombe, was elected Assistant Clerk also by acclamation.

The further organization of the House was completed by the election of W. Alexander of Lincoln, Principal Doorkeeper, after several ballots, over W. S. Webster, of Chatham. On the last ballot the vote stood, Alexander 54. Webster 53. Necessary to a choice, 54.

Mr. John Hill, of Randolph, was then elected Assistant Doorkeeper by an almost unanimous vote. His opponent, Mr. —— Crabtree, of Wake, nominated by Mr. Perry, receiving but three votes.

Mr. Waugh introduced a resolution which was adopted, to raise a Committee of five to prepare rules for the government of the House.

The use of the Hall of the House of Commons, this evening was granted, on motion of Mr. Russ, to the Young Men's Christian Association, for the lecture of Rev. Dr. Deems.

The House then adjourned.

[From the Boston Post.]

What the South is to Do.

As a general thing, a person may be thought to know better about his own situation and interests than anybody else can know for him.—The people of the South cannot be exceptions to the truth of so common an observation. But what makes their case in a sense a very proper one for the thoughtful men of other sections to advise upon, is the fact that it has formed the sole issue in an excited political canvass in the North and West for many months past, and that in reflecting on the final result, the South would naturally wish to consult the views of the side which has shared in their own defeat. They would in reason be glad to hear what those who had vainly espoused their cause have to say.

It is obvious to us, since the result of the October and November elections has become known, that all that now remains for the people of the Southern States to do is to devote themselves to local interests. The soil is left them; they have their health and strength still; the earth will yield at least a support, even if their agricultural implements are few and impaired; they have the stimulus to exertion which their dependent families give; the war has relieved them of the support of a class which must now work voluntarily with them at its own cost, or starve; and there is almost as much to be done in repairing the waste and developing resources hitherto untouched, as if it were to day a virgin country. Whichever way they turn, the people of the South find enough to do, with such encouragement for the energetic and prompt doing of it as occurs to no other population on the face of the civilized globe.

By thus attending strictly to their own concerns the South will soonest become rich and strong again; and when that result is reached, they may be sure of being counted in with as great eagerness as they are now counted out. The effect of this general suspense over their political status in the Union has been both to withhold capital and discourage immigration from that section,—the very things they chiefly needed; now they see that the true way, and the only way in fact, is to fall to with such means and facilities as a crippled agricultural community may command, and bring up their condition to such a point as will challenge the consideration at present denied them. Cotton will command two and three times more than it ever did in its palmiest days before the war, for some time to come; and the labor the Southern planter and farmer is to employ in making his crop, will not be supported by him as when he owned it, and was entirely responsible for it, but will have to be satisfied with the simple wages of an unskilled farm hand. If it is to be better thus for the black man in the end, it cannot fail to be better also for the planter to whom he must look for hire and regular wages.

The South must make its future for itself. It should not trouble itself any further about national politics for the present. Let it bend all its thoughts and energies to the work of recuperation; that will bring the rest much sooner than if the latter was attempted first. What is to restore that section to political importance, and to make those who now tyrannize over it eager to restore it to the enjoyment of its full rights in the Union, is the development and consolidation of its imperial resources,—so vast and so numerous as to stagger the belief of one who has not examined the long list with patient intelligence and care. Material power is at the bottom of social and political power. By hanging at the doors of a Congress that is opened and shut by the keepers of the Radical party, who can see no statesmanship in anything but punishment and revenge, the South can actually neither advance its own claims, nor increase its stock of self-respect; whereas if it holds aloof together, and remains indifferent to threats and the cajolery of those who thrive by its present condition, it will have nothing to draw off its attention from the work requiring to be done at home, and its enemies will be suddenly astonished with the new strength it will shortly be able to display. This is the policy for the South to pursue, we are fully persuaded. Let it accept the situation without any more words, even of protestation. Let it waste no time or strength in demanding its rights in the Union or debating the grounds on which they rest. It will soonest determine the whole question in its own favor by bending its undivided energies to the immediate development of the wealth which it contains.

Some of the Southern journals advocate the borrowing of money to repair their broken lines of railway; others, more wise and practical, advise the production of cotton, and other crops first, but cotton in particular, arguing that after produce is accumulated in sufficient quantities there will be no trouble about opening a highway for it to market. What they need is to plant and hoe and harvest for some time to come. In this way they may get back all their former strength very soon, and become rapidly rich. The whole world waits impatiently for what their soil alone can produce. The profits on its production would very soon refit all the plantations in that vast country. Then immigration will set in upon them, and capital will organize and present itself for their largest possible employments and benefit. Meantime the Radicals in Congress can wrangle over them to their heart's content and the general disgust of the country. If the South may not be represented on the floor of Congress, though ready and willing to resume its place and duties in the Union, it can speak for itself and its importance in another way, more effectively than in the language of politicians, by its perserving industry. Let the manufacture of cotton proceed in that section with the energy with which it is begun in Georgia and Mississippi; let mining interests continue to be developed; let each citizen study how to do his part where he is, in lieu of looking to Washington or anywhere else for help; and we undertake to say that the South equally with the North will be astonished at the progress that will be secured. A favorite party-weapon against the South has been the comparison of its industrial condition with that of the North; it should now be the aim of the Southern people to turn that weapon against those who were so eager to use it, until the latter are satisfied that it is capable of cutting both ways.

ROANOKE

LAND FOR SALE.

AS Attorney, I shall sell, on the premises, for Cash,

ON THE 26TH. DAY OF NOVEMBER, 1866,

At Public Auction, to the highest bidder, the celebrated plantation of

MR. T. P. BURGWYN, KNOWN AS

ALVESTON,

CONTAINING

1,200 Acres, More or Less,

lying in Occoneechie Neck, Northampton county, North Carolina.

This is one of the most beautiful plantations in the whole country, and is surpassed in fertility and productiveness by none in North Carolina. Most of it is high table land, a red soil, cleared and in a high state of cultivation. It is admirably adapted to the production of COTTON, WHEAT, & INDIAN CORN.

It is well stocked with negro laborers, the former slaves of the estate, who are attached to the place, and can be easily induced to remain by a prudent purchaser. It also has on it several very good white tenants,—good and honest farmers—and is in much demand by this class of tenants. The Barns and Laborers' Houses are very good.

THE MANSION HOUSE

is sufficiently good. It is situated on the Roanoke river, below the head of navigation, and in the immediate neighborhood of four railroads leading to Norfolk, Petersburg, Wilmington, and Raleigh.

A plantation of equal value has not been offered for sale in Northampton within the memory of the oldest inhabitant.

NO. 25 CHERRY ST.

AUTHORIZED CAPITAL

FIVE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS.

GEO. H. LENOIR, PRES'T.

S. L. TRIPPE, Sec'y.

Having been appointed agent for the above Company, I respectfully call the attention of the citizens of this section of North Carolina, to the fact that this is a Southern Company with an authorized Capital of $500,000. It's business is ably conducted, by influential, reliable and wealthy citizens of Tennessee.

It has the finest references, and has always been exceedingly prompt in its payments, as can be shown by its records, being sustained by wealthy gentlemen.

It takes both Life and Fire risks on terms as low as any Eastern Company.

This Company is just being introduced into its sister State and I hope it will be well patronized.

Let us support and encourage each other and keep all our money at home.

No one is obliged now to go North to get himself or his property insured, as he can be accommodated here by a company of greatest reliability.

I can be found at any hour of the day at the Raleigh National Bank.

THE SENTINEL.

Monday Evening, Nov. 19, 1866.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

LECTURE.—Rev. Dr. Deems lectures to-night in the Commons' Hall, on the attractive subject "Husbands and Wives."

Rarely is it in the province of our citizens to enjoy such a feast as may be opened to our tastes this evening, judging from the tempting bill of fare, and the skill of the caterer. Perhaps no one of our talented sons has such a catholic heart and fame as Dr. Deems. A devoted and learned divine, a finished scholar, a genial humorist, and graceful rhetorician, endeared alike by his piety and talents and devotion to the interests of our dear old Commonwealth, it is to be hoped the audience will reflect that credit upon the Lecturer, that he most richly merits.

The proceeds will be devoted to the relief of the poor of Raleigh.

Col. Mansfield, who has been here for months, has been recently promoted Brevet Brig. Gen. for gallant conduct on the field. The Special Military Commission of which Gen. Mansfield was President has been dissolved. We learn that he leaves for his home in the morning, having been regularly mustered out of the service. We take pleasure in saying that the gentlemanly and soldierly bearing of Gen. Mansfield, has secured for him the highest respect and confidence of our citizens who have formed his acquaintance.

Col. THOS. S. KENAN, of Duplin, published a card in the Wilmington Journal, of the 17th inst., declining the use of his name in connection with the Speakership of the House of Commons. Col. K. had been suggested for the place by a correspondent of this paper, as well as in other sources. We trust that he may yet be called to fill many positions of usefulness and honor.

A GOOD ACT.—Mr. J. N. Wood, of Goldsboro', gives 25 loads of wood for the poor of Goldsboro', and Mr. George Morrow gives $25 for the same object. Our Raleigh poor need the same kind remembrance. Who will give wood for the Raleigh poor? We judge the Young Men's Christian Association will be glad to be the distributors.

We have received from the publishers a beautiful copy of Mr. Simms' edition of the War Poetry of the South. Its appearance will be hailed with pleasure throughout this section.—Says the Wilmington Journal: It holds a mirror, as it were, up to the transactions of the past, and presents them in all their naturalness. In it every home in the South, every affection and feeling finds its illustrative record in melodious verse. Within its pages, all who have hoped,—who have struggled,—who have suffered, will find sympathy.

The work is inscribed to the "Women of the South." The editor says, in the dedication:—"They have lost a cause, but they have made a triumph! They have shown themselves worthy of any manhood; and will leave a record which shall survive all the caprices of time. They have proved themselves worthy of the best Womanhood, and, in their posterity, will leave no race which shall be unworthy of the cause which is lost, or of the mothers, sisters and wives, who have taught such noble lessons of virtuous effort and womanly endurance."

THE EYE AND EAR.—We refer our readers to the advertisement of Dr. Gardner, Oculist and Aurist, (formerly of London,) now of New York, who will be at the EXCHANGE HOTEL, on Saturday, Nov. 24th., and remain until Thursday, the 29th. After that time, he will visit Raleigh monthly, of which due notice will be given.—The Dr. comes highly recommended by the press of the different cities he has visited. Those who require medical or surgical aid for defective sight or hearing should avail themselves of the opportunity now offered for obtaining relief, by consulting Dr. Gardner.

MEMPHIS—DUNCAN K. McRAE.

The City Under the Regime—Col. Beaumont's Acquittal.

A recent letter from Memphis, Tenn., gives the following:

"Memphis is beginning to assume the appearance and proportions of a live city. Under the invigorating impulses of her new life of freedom, her real estate is rising in value with wonderful rapidity; great blocks of fine business houses are springing up as by magic, the limits of the city are extended on every side, and wealth is pouring in from all directions. This is the 'ruin' and 'desolation' which freedom was to bring.

The city has been profoundly excited by the conspiracy against Col. Beaumont, superintendent of metropolitan police. On one side were arrayed all the liberal and order-loving citizens; on the other, the army of thieves, burglars, rascals of every grade, prostitutes and reckless politicians, who thrive only upon the crimes and follies of society. Col. Beaumont was triumphantly vindicated.

There is a nest of precious villians here, headed by Oishei and Lipari, as ever an Italian sun hatched; and yet politicians have prostituted themselves to the vile business of lionizing the scoundrels for political effect. In his eloquent argument for the defence, Col. Duncan K. McRae remarked:

"A proved counterfeiter and a proved perjurer are applauded here to-day. I am astonished at it. It is as if society would commit suicide. I stand here to-day for truth, for law, for honesty. I feel horror-stricken at such applause.—No man with an instinct of honor can cheer a knave, a proved counterfeiter and a perjurer.—Such would plunge society into a vortex of crime, as they swim they are more at ease."

It seems unkind in the Confederates to make so many charges against General Butler. When he commanded a Federal army he didn't make any upon them.—Prentice.

The Cincinati Gazette says the people have "spoken with emphasis." Yes, but they ought to study political prosody. They don't emphasize aright.—Prentice.

TELEGRAPHIC.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.

It has already been stated, that during the past week, the President has had interviews with prominent gentlemen from all sections, in relation to the present condition of political affairs. Chief Justice Chase, Gen. Grant and Maj. Gens. Sickles and Dix among others have freely given their views, all of them being actuated by a sincere desire for such action as may be best calculated to fully restore the relations of the Southern States to the general government. The idea seems to be, that so long as the Executive and Legislative branches are divided in their opinions, the South must remain unrepresented in Congress. Hence, the effort is to effect some arrangement to accommodate the differences between them. According to current representations, the President lends a willing ear to all suggestions in that direction, but so far nothing definite has been consummated.

Quarantine at Havana.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.

All vessels from Philadelphia and New Orleans are to be quarantined three days for observation.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhoea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

The Louisville Journal says: "The testimonials which Dr. Gardner presents to the public could never have been obtained, except by the display of great skill and learning in his profession. One thing especially commendable in the Doctor's practice is, that he will not attempt an incurable disease for the sake of a fee, but frankly tells the patient whether he can be cured or not. We cheerfully recommend Dr. Gardner to the attention of all our friends who may be suffering from diseases of the eye or ear.

The Richmond Times says: We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. Gardner is the most acientific and successful eye and ear Surgeon in this country.

"We feel justified in recommending Doctor Gardner to those suffering from diseases of the eye and ear."—Richmond Whig.

"We can safely and cordially recommend Dr. Gardner, who will fulfill all he undertakes to perform."—Baltimore Clipper.

The New Orleans True Delta says: "We can safely recommend Dr. Gardner as a successful operator on the eye and ear. He will not undertake to treat a case unless a cure can be effected.

The Wheeling Register says: "Dr. Gardner is one of the most successful Oculists and Aurists in the country. We advise those suffering from the diseases of the eye and ear to consult him."

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other expectorant is too patent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

We can only assure the public, that its quality is carefully kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all that it has ever done.

Great numbers of Clergymen, Physicians, Statesmen, and eminent personages, have lent their names to certify the unparalleled usefulness of our remedies, but space here will not permit the insertion of them. The Agents below named furnish gratis our American Almanac in which they are given; with also full descriptions of the complaints they cure.

Those who require an alterative medicine to purify the blood will find AYER'S COMP. EXT. SARSAPARILLA the remedy to use. Try it once, and you will know its value.

Prepared by J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by VALUABLE PLANTATION FOR SALE!

ON THE SECOND THURSDAY IN DECEMBER, that being the 13th day of the month, I will sell to the highest bidder, upon the premises, that desirable lately owned, and resided upon, by Miss Elizabeth Hinton, dec'd.

COTTON PLANTATION,

The tract is situated on Neuse River, six miles East of Raleigh, on the 'Tarboro' Road, adjoining the lands of David Hinton. It contains of land,—from THREE TO FOUR HUNDRED of which are cleared. About 100 acres are fine low ground—not liable to over-flow. This is considered one of the best Cotton Plantations in the County, and the bottom land will always produce enough Corn to sustain it.

THE IMPROVEMENTS

consist of a handsome Dwelling House, containing seven rooms, located on a commanding site. There are three frame houses also on the premises, with two rooms each, and all necessary out-houses, cabins, barns, gin house, carriage house, &c.

As this land will be sold on the liberal credit of only one-third cash, the balance payable in one, two and three years, a rare opportunity is afforded to parties wishing to purchase a first-class farm.

Personal security will be required, and title will be with-held until the last payment is made.

NOTE.—This Land will be divided into three tracts, the House-tract 600 acres, another tract of 350 acres, and another of 345, plots of which may be seen at my office above Creech's Store.

A New Era In Medicine!

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITER,
L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
146 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 17, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; the burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude

By this practical illustration of the advantages of Life Insurance, it is commended to the confidence and support of every one desirous of providing for surviving loved ones.

As an investment merely, a Life Insurance Policy is as safe an investment of funds as can be made.—The principal, generally, is not only many times in excess of the amount paid, but in a sound company it has no rival for security, and no species of Government bonds are a more desirable investment.
